

WHAT THE BIBLE SHOULD HAVE SAID

On contrition — Luke ch15 v17-20.

“When he came to his senses, he said, ‘How many of my father’s hired men have food to spare, and here I am starving to death! I will set out and go back to my father and say to him: “Father, it’s a fallen world and we’re all only human and none of us is perfect, but if I have sinned against heaven and against you, I realise that christian life is a continual cycle of repentance and forgiveness, so where’s the fatted calf?”’
