

WORSHIP MODE

LYRICS BY JON GARVEY

GOOD MORNING, LORD JESUS

By Jon Garvey ©1997

Good morning, Lord Jesus,
I turn my face to you.
I do so many things each week,
But now I want to hear you speak.
Your people are singing,
They've come to worship you
And say "Good, good morning, Lord!"
Good morning, Lord!
Good morning, Lord!
Good morning, Lord, Good morning!
*Good morning, Lord!

Good morning, Lord Jesus,
I'm bringing you this song.
The day is getting brighter now,
I want to tell the people how
You came down to save us
From all that we do wrong,
We say "Good, good morning, Lord!"
*Good morning, Lord!

I WILL WAIT FOR YOU

By Jon Garvey ©1998

I will wait for you
Come to this dry and weary land
I will wait for you
I thirst for water from your hand
I will wait for you
O do not turn away
I will wait for you
And hope in you alone

Strength to you belongs
My soul yearns for you in the night
And my spirit longs
To meet you in the morning light
How my heart desires
Your praise and your renown
I will wait for you
To come and take your throne

I will wait – like a watchman for the dawn
I will wait – like a watchman for the dawn

Come, Lord Jesus Christ
The First and Last, the Living One
Come, Lord Jesus, come
The Spirit and the Bride say “Come!”
I will wait for you
Because the time is near
For I hear your voice
Say, “I am coming soon!”

SIGNS OF THE TIMES

By Jon Garvey 2004

When you hear of war's alarm
Have no doubt such things must come
Nation will cause nation harm
Before the end
Earthquakes make your cities fall
Hunger's grip destroys the poor
These are labour-pains for all
That God intends

Hear what the Lord says:

"These are signs of the times"

Hear what the Lord says:

"Well, these are signs of the times"

Men will say the Lord is near Miracles and signs appear
Wickedness from year to year
Will multiply
Children will betray the old
The love of many will grow cold
Remember that you have been told
Ahead of time

Hear...

In these days be on your guard
Though your trials may be hard
He will give you his own words
To say to them
Spread the Word that you received
Take care not to be deceived
In the end you will be saved
As he returns

Hear...

CHOOSE LIFE

By Jon Garvey ©2003

The Lord has made a covenant
To lead us in his ways
It's life and true prosperity
To walk with Christ today
If we love his instruction
We will live in the land
Why choose death and destruction
By abandoning his hand?

Choose life
When all around are losing their restraint
Choose life
When virtue dies and love is growing faint
You see the ways diverge today
And Jesus paid the price
Choose life

It's not too difficult to do
It's not beyond our reach
It's not out far beyond the stars
Or down beneath the seas
It is here on our lips
It is here in our minds
In the word that we teach
As we look, then we will find

Choose life
So you may love the Lord as you rejoice
Choose life
Hold fast to him and listen to his voice
You see the ways diverge today
And Jesus paid the price
Choose life
And find success in all the work you do
Choose life
And God himself will find delight in you
You see the ways diverge today
And Jesus paid the price
Choose life

BY THIS CROSS

By Jon Garvey ©1988

By this cross he redeemed me
By his blood he has freed me
By this death sin has died to me
And I stand reconciled through him alone
He is raised, and brings life to me
From the grave - this is victory!
Now in heaven he pleads for me
And I come as a son before the throne

GIVING UP

By Jon Garvey ©2007

There is a man in heaven,
risen from the grave,
and he has been declared the Son of God with mighty power to save;
to save the disobedient,
to save those far away,
to give them grace to believe the everlasting story.

There is a man in heaven
who fully paid the price, and so his blood now speaks a better word than any sacrifice;
his blood now speaks a better word than all our stain of sin, for he has carried up our names before his Father.

There is a man in heaven,
seated on the throne, and he has sent his Holy Spirit down to all that are his own;
he sent his Holy Spirit down so we could do his will,
and he has promised he will be with us forever.

There is a man in heaven -
Jesus is his name - and he has carried our humanity above this world of shame;
he carried our humanity
before the face of God, and he will come again to take us all to glory
to glory
to glory.

PRIEST FOREVER

By Jon Garvey ©24 June 2004

When you lived in this dark world as man
Torn by every trial men have known
You cried out to God above
Offered prayers and tears
Trusted that a Father's heart would hear
*For you're a Priest forever
And you save forever
You're a Priest forever to the Lord*

Son of God Eternal, Holy One
Yet you learned obedience from your pain
You submitted reverently
And your cries were heard
Put your faith in God's eternal Word
For...

Let us put our trust in such a man as this!
Let us put our trust in such a man as this!
Offering gifts to God above
Sacrifice for sin
Opening the door of grace to him
For...

ALMIGHTY, SEND LIGHT INTO MY SOUL

By Jon Garvey ©1996

Almighty
Send light into my soul
And brightly
Shine through me
Like the sun above

Most Holy
My frozen heart refine
And slowly
Consume me
With the fire of love

In this world there are only darkened lives
You are the One who opens eyes
Give me the voice of one who cries
"Here is the Word of God!"

My Saviour
You gave your life for me
O never
Let me forget
What I owe to you

O never
Let me forget
What I owe to you.

LORD, HEAR OUR PRAYER

By Jon Garvey ©1995

Lord, hear our prayer
And let our cry come unto thee
Lord, hear our prayer
And let our cry come unto thee
Hide not thy faithfulness
In the day of our distress
Turn your ear to us, we pray.

O OUR FATHER IN THE HEAVENS

By Jon Garvey ©1992

O our Father in the Heavens
O our Father in the Heavens
May Your Name be kept holy May Your kingdom come fully May your purposes come to be Both in heaven, and on earth
Our daily bread please give to us today
Our daily bread please give to us today
And forgive us all the debts we cannot pay
For we forgive our debtors in this very way
And do not bring us to temptation, Lord, we pray
But save us from the evil one.      Repeat verse 1

O our Father in the heavens
O our Father in the heavens
For yours is the kingdom
For yours is the kingdom
The power and the glory for ever
And ever and ever, amen.

UNLESS THE LORD BUILD THE HOUSE

By Jon Garvey ©1993

Unless the Lord build the house
Its builders work in vain
Unless it's firm upon the rock
It will not stand the rain
So we give our hands to you
And we give our hearts to you
And we say, "Build up a church for your glory."
And we give our strength to you
And we give our souls to you
And we say, "Build up a house for your name."

Living God, from darkness you have brought us
Into the light you brought us
To stand before your throne
And from all eternity you loved us
In Jesus Christ you loved us
And made us living stones
So as we gather here
We know that we are one
By your mighty power alone
And by nothing we have done

Unless the Lord build the house ...

As a citadel cannot be hidden
O may we not be hidden
May courage never fail
For your love no weapon forged can sever
The gates of hell will never Against your church prevail
So let your word be heard
Let your Spirit go before
Let them consecrate the house
Where you dwell for ever more

JUSTIFIED BY HIS RIGHTEOUSNESS

By Jon Garvey ©1995

*Justified by his righteousness,
Justified by his grace,
Justified through his sacrifice,
Justified through faith.
Who will dare to accuse us now?
Who will dare raise his voice?
Who could tear from the hand of Christ
The people of his choice?*

It is God who justifies
So who will condemn?
Jesus died for his people's sins
And now pleads for them.
We are more than conquerors
Through Christ who loved us,
He will keep us until he comes
In this we can trust.

In all things God works for good
In those who love him;
We were called by his perfect will
To die to our sin.
Which of us can know his mind
Or search out his ways?
Which of us has given to him,
That he should repay?

FAITHFUL AND TRUE

By Jon Garvey ©1987

I saw heaven open and blazing with light
And I saw a man ride on a horse of pure white
With justice he judges, his eyes are like flame
He is crowned with all crowns, and The Word is his name
    Singing Faithful, and Faithful, and Faithful and True
    Faithful, and Faithful, and Faithful and True
    Faithful, and Faithful, and Faithful and True
    The rule of the nations is given to you

The armies of heaven are seen in his train
And his words are a sword to bring justice again
His robe is bright scarlet with his own precious blood
He is worthy to pour out the wrath of his God
    Singing Faithful, and Faithful, and Faithful and True
    Faithful, and Faithful, and Faithful and True
    Faithful, and Faithful, and Faithful and True
    The rule of the nations is given to you

THE LIVING GOD

By Jon Garvey ©2005

The Living God is a mighty King
His reign is seen over everything
No power on earth can resist his will He speaks his word, and the world is still
He breathes his life into all that lives
They are sustained by the food he gives His Spirit sends them to every shore
He hides his face and they are no more

*The Lord our God is the Living One
His love is brighter than every sun
He turns the night into brightest day
And so we give him the highest praise*

The Living God watches over all
The nations fear when his judgements fall
He sees the poor as their hope grows dim
And lifts them up so they reign with him
The widow dwells in a warm embrace
The fatherless see their Father's face
The friendless know they are not alone
The stranger finds his eternal home

*The Lord our God is the Living One
His love is brighter than every sun
He turns the night into brightest day
And so we give him the highest...*

*Praise and thanksgiving
To him who saves us
Raise up the name of the Living God*

*The Lord our God is the Living One
His love is brighter than every sun
He turns the night into brightest day
And so we give him the highest praise*

*The Lord our God is the Living One
His love is brighter than every sun
He turns the night into brightest day
And so we give him the highest praise
